

Festive Finds

A SEASONAL TWIST

It is simply not Christmas without the ubiquitous handkerchief. However these quirky designs with a festive note are sure to make a gentleman smile. Box of three cotton handkerchiefs, turkey or stag designs, £15.50, Thornback & Peel

BREAKFAST IN BED

While the children delve into their stockings, discover the goodies in your own Christmas morning hamper – everything you might need to prepare for a day of merriment. Whittards Christmas morning gift basket, £55, House of Fraser

HALCYON GAMES

Forgo electronic gadgets and encourage the charms of good old-fashioned marbles with this quaint little stocking filler.

Little Box of Marbles, £3, John Lewis

Nostalgic Buys

Let loved ones embrace a yearning nostalgia with gifts that hark back to simpler times

MODERN MAGIC

For homes without a chimney it is sometimes a mystery to young ones as to how Father Christmas delivers presents. Quell any disbelief with this magic key.

Santa's Magic Key, £5.99, The Contemporary Home

SWEET DELIGHT

Rather than hang chocolates on the tree, why not fill a jar with swirly lollies for a sweet treat for guests both young and young-at-heart.

Peppermint swirl lollies, £1.35 each, Waitrose

HAPPY HOUR

Fragranced with fresh lemon and juniper – for the aroma of the quintessential English G&T – this bubble bath will amuse, relax and delight a cocktail enthusiast in equal measure

Gin & Tonic bath and shower gel, £7.95, The Handpicked Collection

BEST FOR GUESTS

Perfect for an unexpected visitor this sumptuous selection of chocolates comes in a seasonal box, so there's no need for last-minute wrapping.

Truffles selection in holly pattern box, £18, Charbonnel et Walker

BELOVED TED

Antique teddies are hard to come by, and often have an equally prohibitive price tag. But this gorgeous bear with jointed head and arms has an authentically vintage look, yet is affordable enough to be played with and adored without any worry.

Broughton bear, comes boxed, £30, Silver Cross
